The service will begin at 5:30 p.m. The public is invited.

Rep. Boucher said, “Lest we not forget, it is very important to carry on the memory of the 3,000 people who lost their lives in the terrorists attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon and Flight 93 brought down in Pennsylvania.”

“Many of these innocent victims were our family, friends and neighbors from southwest Connecticut,” said Rep. Boucher. “I hope we have a large turnout to pay tribute to these great Americans and to keep them in our thoughts and prayers.”
